

Regulations on the formation and activities of the national representative bodies of the Chuvash-Bulgar people

Section I. General Provisions

Clause 1. Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria Elchisen Kanashe (CVBEK) is the highest national representative body of the Chuvash-Bulgarian people.

Clause 2. CVBEK is formed by voting of individuals who possess Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria citizenship. Voting is carried out by changing the favorite candidate in the citizen's personal account.

Clause 3. If any individual receives less than 1% support from the citizens of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria, they are automatically excluded from CVBEK.

Clause 4. If any individual receives 1% or more support from the citizens of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria, they are automatically added to CVBEK.

Clause 5. In its activities, CVBEK, as well as all citizens of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria, adhere to this Regulations and the norms of natural law within the framework of international law.

Clause 6. Clauses 2, 3, and 4 of this document come into effect after the citizen's personal account is ready.

Clause 7. The initial composition of CVBEK is formed from opinion leaders and movements for the independence of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria. CVBEK continues to be open to them until 1000 citizenships are granted. After that, CVBEK is formed through the choice of the citizens of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria.

Section II. Goals and Objectives

Clause 8. The main goal of CVBEK is to ensure and protect the national, political, economic, and cultural rights of the Chuvash-Bulgarian people, in particular, the right to national-state self-determination on their national territory.

Clause 9. To achieve this goal, CVBEK:

- develops and implements a system of measures aimed at creating Chuvash citizenship;
- seeks the creation of a Chuvash libertarian state, Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria, on the historical lands of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria, based on the realization of the Chuvash-Bulgarian people's inalienable right to national-state self-determination;
- takes measures to revive and expand the use of the Chuvash-Bulgarian language, protect and affirm Chuvash-Bulgarian culture, traditions, and customs;
- works to eliminate the monopoly of violence by the terrorist state of Russia to protect the natural rights of the inhabitants of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria. Namely: the right to self-defense of oneself and private property against violence from other individuals and the state and the right to freely dispose of one's person and private property.

Section III. Transition to the Legal Field of Rights Protection

Clause 10. Judicial regulation is applied to protect the natural rights of the inhabitants of Chuvashia.

Clause 11. Judicial regulation of disputes between the citizens of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria, as well as the residents of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria, is carried out by private courts of any country and the courts of international organizations.

Clause 12. The implementation of each judicial decision depends on the authority and reputation of the court.

Clause 13. In the presence of legal or political prohibitions or restrictions on the activities of private courts within the territory of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria by the United Nations, the UN Security Council, or the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR), the activities of private courts in Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria cease, and their decisions are subject to review by the UN Security Council, ECHR, or any other UN-authorized body.

Clause 14. The termination of the application of Clause 13 of this current Regulations is possible only after the liberation of one of the settlements in Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria, where the right established by this Regulations is recognized.

Clause 15. Human rights are respected in the Chuvash State, the ECHR is recognized, and natural and precedent law is in force.

Clause 16. Natural law means the right to self-defense against violence from other individuals and the state and the right to freely dispose of one's person and private property. It also includes the freedom to dispose of private property and the right to protect it from other individuals and states.

Clause 17. Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria recognizes the Russian Federation as a terrorist state.

Clause 18. Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria declares its territory occupied by the terrorist state of the Russian Federation.

Clause 19. Since armed groups operating on the territory of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria engage in terrorist activities and are under the control of the occupying regime of the terrorist state of the Russian Federation, Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria declares the following organizations as terrorist: «FSB of Russia», «MVD RF».

Clause 20. As various courts operate within the territory of the Chuvash State, some of them under pressure from terrorist organizations make knowingly illegal decisions aimed at implementing terror and suppressing the rights and freedoms of the inhabitants and citizens of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria. Therefore, CVBEK declares any court subject to the legal system of the terrorist state as non-authoritative, and its decisions can be reviewed within the Clauses of this Regulations.

Section IV. Citizenship of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria

Clause 21. A Chuvash-Bulgarian is anyone who identifies themselves as such. Therefore, the citizenship of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria is not limited only to those with Chuvash-Bulgarian origin.

Clause 22. The criteria for granting citizenship of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria are determined by CVBEK.

Clause 23. Citizenship is confirmed through blockchain technology, along with an accompanying physical document compliant with the standards of international passports, with the ability to verify its authenticity through the blockchain.

Clause 24. The issuance of passports is carried out by consular services under the ambassadors of CVBEK.

Clause 25. The selection of favorites for electing members of CVBEK is conducted using blockchain tools.

Clause 26. Blockchain tools refer to any software that serves the interests of citizens of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria in managing their political and/or civil rights.

Section V. Election of the Tep Elchi

Clause 27. The Tep Elchi is the favorite of the citizens of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria who has the highest percentage of support.

Clause 28. Until 10 citizenships of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria are granted, the Tep Elchi is elected through an open vote in CVBEK.

Clause 29. To implement Clause 28 of this document, the Tep Elchi is re-elected upon the petition of any member of CVBEK, no more than once a month.

Clause 30. Clause 7 of this document, regarding the admission of new members to CVBEK until 1000 citizenships are granted, is regulated by CVBEK.

Section V. Inheritance from Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria

Clause 31. CVBEK recognizes Chuvashia as the heir and successor of the state of Volga Bulgaria (Atăłśí Pălhár).

Clause 32. In the legal succession from Volga Bulgaria, Chuvashia has an equal legal name: Chăvash Yën-Atăłśí Pălhár (Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria).

Clause 33. CVBEK also recognizes the Tatar people as one of the peoples-successors of Volga Bulgaria.

Clause 34. CVBEK may consider any other people claiming inheritance from Volga Bulgaria and recognize them as such.

Clause 35. Based on the peoples-successors of Volga Bulgaria and the countries of the Volga-Ural macroregion, CVBEK will strive to form allied and friendly agreements.

Section IV. CVBEK

Clause 36. CVBEK is a collegial representative body of the Chuvash-Bulgarian people, which is formed by favorites elected by the citizens of Chuvashia-Volga Bulgaria, who have received at least 1% of the votes through blockchain tools.

Clause 37. CVBEK makes decisions through voting by the members of CVBEK recognized in a general manner, which can be subject to change through new decisions.

Clause 38. A decision of CVBEK is considered adopted if it receives a majority of votes from the voting members of CVBEK.

Clause 39. Each decision of CVBEK is published on the official Twitter account <https://twitter.com/ChuvashiaGov> in Chuvash-Bulgarian and international languages.

Clause 40. The primary language of CVBEK is Chuvash-Bulgarian, and also foreign languages in the case of inviting foreign consultants.

Approved by the decision of CVBEK No. 10 on 25.04.2023.

Diplomatic Representative of Chuvashia - Volga Bulgaria Mishshi Oreshnikov

Ambassador to Estonia from Chuvashia - Volga Bulgaria Alexander Samokaev

Ambassador to Lithuania from Chuvashia - Volga Bulgaria Roman Petrov

Ambassador to the UK from Chuvashia - Volga Bulgaria Alexei Mironov